

WITW<sup>19</sup> EVENT SCHEDULE

THURSDAY (4/11):

People will be arriving throughout the day, take this time to familiarize yourself with the area and make some new friends.

Check wookiesinthewoods.com for maps and other info.

FRIDAY (4/12):

10:00 AM – Orientation and safety meeting: To kickoff the weekend we'll be having the Blount County Rescue Squad and long time attendees coming out to address the group about safe driving on the Dragon and surrounding area. This is held at the main event/rec hall that is noted on the Fontana village map.

(RBO Wristband pick up will follow the meeting– please bring your eventbrite receipt for faster service. Electronic versions of your receipt work too.)

11:15 AM – Group R/R32 Dragon Parade +Various Cruises TBD (meet outside of grill/listen to radio/check Fontana main desk for cruise announcements)

Fire Pits reserved after sunset / Beer Swap

SATURDAY (4/13):

10:30 AM – Various Cruises

4:00 PM – Staging for Soundoff

(AT FONTANA BALLFIELD AGAIN THIS YEAR)

***If you do not have an R32 or Golf R please refrain from driving up near the ballfield. You can park somewhere along the Welch road loop.***

5:00 PM – Sound Off at the Ballfield then get ready for ..RBO.

7:00 PM – ..RBO – ballfield opens for parking at 6PM, those participating in soundoff can leave their car there.

8:30ish PM – Famous ..Raffle

Raffle tickets are $10 CASH ONLY.

TICKETS WILL BE SOLD AT SOUNDOFF AS WELL AS BEFORE/DURING DINNER

$1,000s in raffle prizes donated by our generous sponsors, you'll want tickets! ATM on site is always empty. 1 free door prize raffle entry per registrant. We have a few cool items for you this year. Raffle proceeds will go to the Blount County Rescue Squad and The University of Chicago Medicine Comer Children's Hospital

Fire Pits reserved after sunset / Beer Swap

SUNDAY (4/14):

People head home.

Some stay to enjoy another day in the mountains.

Thank you for attending and see you in April.

DRIVE MORE

